

A summary of the historical Pambry products

This page shows a sample of the historical products and projects created through the life of the company. More detailed information on our current product line-up can be found on our website www.pambry.co.uk

Pambry throat Microphone

A specialised device to capture voice signals via examining air flow and vibrations of the throat

Lightweight infantry headset or swimming headset

Waterproof, designed with minimal weight for flexibility of the user. Perfect for when undertaking high amounts of physical activity

Adaptors and volume controls

A vast range of off the shelf designed volume controls or bespoke made to customer requirements

Two sided headset

A variation on the lightweight infantry or swimming headset

Covert earpieces

Miniature speakers designed to be placed inside the ear for minimal discomfort to the user

Modified Wireframe boom microphones

Custom designed microphone shapes dependant on customer requirements

Inductive neck loops

Designed originally for use with the covert earpieces

Spring loaded connector caps

Designed to protect the internal wiring and pins from damage or any effects of dust during harsh environments such as deserts

Boom pivots

Designed to enhance the usability of our flexi boom microphones

Custom designed flexi boom microphones

Custom designed mechanical and electronic products as defined by the customer

Tel 01202 624910 Fax 01202 632452 Email sales@pambry.co.uk

www.pambry.co.uk

